

Winners Don't Quit

America loves winners. Whether it's the winner of American Idol, the Super Bowl, or a lottery jackpot, winners embody success.

What is success? Who are the real winners? What does it take?

Al Foxx shares his unique insights into what it really means to be a winner.

Shaped by a disabling, near fatal, teenage motorcycle crash, 27 years of rehabilitation and mentorship by leaders, speakers and trainers in different life arenas, Al speaks with candor and hard-earned wisdom. His Winners Don't Quit message reveals his heart to share the power of finding, developing and being thankful for your gifts.

Al's Winners Don't Quit Message:

Accept life's challenges—anticipate the physical and spiritual strength they can develop in you.

Believe that you can reach your goals and achieve your purpose in life.

Care about everyone who enters your life, no matter what! No matter how difficult they seem and no matter how unlike you they are, don't lose sight of their value as human beings. Treat them with the respect they deserve.

Delight in their differences by:

Allowing them to be however they are,

Accepting them for whatever they are, and

Appreciating them for whoever they are.

Change produces stress, but only if you let it by not embracing your new reality. You embrace reality by accepting yourself and your new situation. When you do that, you can make the adjustments necessary to live and work at peace with yourself and others.

Be thankful for what you have, rather than regretting what you don't have.

Time and experience show that audiences are enlightened, inspired, and challenged by Al's Winners Don't Quit message. They laugh and learn as Al charms them with his award-winning humor and real life examples of what it takes to be a real winner at work and in life.

Al's Winners Don't Quit message makes a perfect Keynote Address, a Conference Break-Out Session, a Presentation for managers, staff or the topic of a short Seminar or Workshop.